

National Children's Bureau of Australia

1971 – 1993

Other Names:

- Child and Family Welfare Council of Australia
- Children's Bureau of Australia

Details

The National Children's Bureau dates back to 1971, when it was known as the Child and Family Welfare Council of Australia, a national peak body. In 1986, it was incorporated as the Children's Bureau of Australia. From 1990, supported by Family Action, the National Children's Bureau of Australia was a leading children's advocacy and research body. In 1993, it amalgamated with Family Action and Family Focus to form OzChild.

More info

Chronology

- National Children's Bureau of Australia (1971 – 1993)
 - OzChild (1993 - current)

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Family Action \(1987 - 1993\)

Family Action provided financial support to the National Children's Bureau of Australia from 1990 to 1993.

Resources

- Gregory, Graeme Gregory and N.J. Smith, Particular Care: the report of the National Survey of Non-government Children's Homes and Foster Care (including Homes for Physically and Intellectually Handicapped Children), 30th June 1979, 1982

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/national-childrens-bureau-of-australia/>