

Catholic Women's Social Guild

1916 – 1970

Details

Catholic Women's Social Guild was established in October 1916 in Victoria. One of the aims of the Catholic Women's Social Guild was to improve the lives of women and children so it established Santa Casa in Queenscliff for children of poor parents in delicate health. The guild fundraised for Santa Casa while the Sisters of Mercy ran the Home. The Catholic Women's Social Guild became known as the Catholic Women's League in 1970.

Gallery

Santa Casa, Queenscliff, C.W.S.G. Holiday Home for sick children. Sisters and holidaymakers.

Description: This is a scanned copy of a photo printed in The Horizon's commemoration of the Catholic Women's Social Guild 50 year jubilee celebrations from October 1966. This image is undated, the date included is an estimate.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Santa Casa \(1918 - 1961\)

Resources

- Glowrey, Mary, The Santa Casa, Woman's Social Work, April 1918
 - Harkin, S, "Santa Casa" Holiday Home Report and Financial Statement, The Horizon, 1961
 - Catholic Women's Social Guild, "Santa Casa" Home for Delicate Children, The Australian Catholic Truth Society Record, 20 July 1938
 - Work of "Santa Casa", Advocate, 23 April 1953
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/catholic-womens-social-guild/>