

Crecy Group Home

1969 – 1978

Other Names: • Crecy Children's Home

Details

Crecy Group Home was opened at Eastwood (also known as Marsfield) in 1969. It was run by the Church of England (Anglican) Diocese of Sydney as a children's home. The first children to live at Crecy were transferred there from the Anglican Killara Composite Group Home at Carlingford. Crecy closed in December 1978.

Crecy Group Home - Eastwood

Description: This is a photo of the Crecy group home at Eastwood (also called Marsfield). It shows a standard brick suburban home, with trees and a low stone fence at the front. Behind the house is a large water tank, and visible on the right hand side of the photo is a portion of a sign for the Marsfield community church.
