

Elsie Cook Cottage

c. 1969 – 1977?

Details

Elsie Cook Cottage was a hostel for girls who had previously resided at Bailey Cottage that was part of the Methodist Church's Heighway House Project. It provided hostel-style accommodation for twelve working age girls and accepted girls who had previously resided at Bailey Cottage and also from Westwood at Bowral.

Elsie Cook Cottage was named in recognition of Mrs Elsie Cook's long service to the Heighway House project.

In 1977 the Uniting Church was formed from congregations of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Congregational Churches. The Uniting Church took over the management of the Heighway House Project. Around 1979 the residential programmes of the Heighway House Project were closed down.

More info

Chronology

- Heighway House Project (1960 - 1979?)
 - Elsie Cook Cottage (c. 1969 – 1977?)

Related Entries

Run by

- Methodist Department of Christian Citizenship \(1965 - 1977\)

Related Organisations

- Bailey Cottage \(1969 - 1979?\)

Bailey Cottage and Elsie Cook Cottage were both part of the Heighway House Project.

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records

- [Former residents' files, \[no date\], Heighway House](#)