

Camp Toukley

c. 1954 –

Other Names:

- Lutanda, Camp Toukley
- CCC Central Coast

Details

Camp Toukley, located on the Central Coast of New South Wales, was originally built as a holiday camp for children living at Lutanda Children's Home. Operated by Lutanda Children's Services it opened in 1954 on 27 acres of land. Over time its main purpose changed to running Christian holiday camps for groups of children, family group camps, and religious retreats. In 2019, Lutanda Camps name changed to CCC Camps and Camp Toukley also became known as CCC Central Coast.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- Lutanda Children's Services \(1954 - current\)

Related Organisations

- Lutanda Children's Home \(1930 - 1984\)

Resources

- Lutanda, CCC Central Coast, 2014
- Assemblies Outreach Magazine, December 2007
- Lutanda Children's Services - Burwood \(1930-\), National Redress Scheme, No date

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/camp-toukley/>