

Cottage Home for Feeble-Minded Children, Parramatta

1907 – 1923?

Other Names: • Jefferis Cottage Home for Feeble-Minded Children

Details

The Cottage Home for Feeble-Minded Children, Parramatta, was established by the State Children's Relief Board in 1907. It was intended to provide special treatment for children who were intellectually disabled or psychologically disturbed, but were not so unwell that they needed to be sent to a hospital for the insane. It offered schooling to the children following the Montessori method. It possibly closed around 1923.

The house occupied by the Cottage Home for Feeble-Minded Children was a gift from Mrs Jefferis, a member of the State Children's Relief Board.
