

Kirinari Hostel

1967 –

Details

Kirinari Hostel was established in 1967 to provide accommodation for secondary students who are living in Sydney. It was established by the Aboriginal Children's Advancement Society, with Aboriginal Hostels Ltd taking over the running of the hostel in 1976. A second site was later opened in Newcastle, around 1971.

Kirinari Hostel was mentioned in a 1979 Commonwealth Government report called Why are they in children's homes: report of the ACOSS children's home intake survey.

According to research done by the staff of the Northern Territory Department of Health, it was a place where children from the Northern Territory were sent.
