

Country Women's Association Hostel, Dubbo

c. 1945 – c. 1958

Other Names:

- Matthew Robinson Girls' Hostel
- CWA Hostel, Dubbo
- Dubbo CWA Hostel

Details

The Country Women's Association Hostel, Dubbo was opened by the Dubbo Country Women's Association around 1945. It was a boarding hostel to help girls attend secondary school, and closed around 1958.

Country Women's Association Hostel, Dubbo was opened after a Country Women's Association member, Mrs Matthew Robinson, donated a house in memory of her husband. The Hostel was previously owned by the Presbyterian Church, from which they operated a hostel for boys called St Andrew's Presbyterian Hostel.
