

Inala Rudolf Steiner School for Curative Education

1958 – 2005

Other Names:

- Inala Special School
- Inala

Details

Inala Rudolf Steiner School for Curative Education was a residential special school for school-aged children at Cherrybrook. It was opened on 1 November 1958 on a five-acre property by Dr Hans Joachim and Mrs Kyra Pohl, along with a group of parents seeking accommodation support for their children with intellectual disabilities. It closed in 2005. In 2014, Inala was a service for adults with disabilities.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Miroma Special School \(1966 - 2010?\)

Susan Haris, the founder of Miroma, trained at Inala Rudolf Steiner School for Curative Education.

Resources

- [Norma Blackwood and John Blackwood interviewed by Sue Andersen at Rudolf Steiner House, Sussex Street, Sydney \[transcript\], City of Sydney Oral History Project: Belief \(2 May 2011\)](#), 2 May 2011
- Warrah: reflections on 50 years 1969-2019, Warrah Disability Services, 2019

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/inala-rudolf-steiner-school-for-curative-education/>