

Wesley James Home

1976 – 1990?

Details

Wesley James Home, in Burwood, was established by the Central Methodist Mission in 1976 then run by the Wesley Central Mission from 1977. According to Wesley Mission, which is the new name for the Wesley Central Mission, Wesley James Home provided family-style living for young people who had graduated from children's homes. As at 2014, it was thought this home probably closed around 1990.
