

Tufnell Toddlers' Home

1947 – c. 1975

Details

The Tufnell Toddlers' Home, in Nundah, was operated by the Corporation of the Synod of the Diocese of Brisbane. It was co-located with Tufnell Home and housed children up to the age of five. The Toddlers' Home opened 14 September 1947 and closed around 1975.

The Tufnell Toddlers' Home was licensed as a separate institution under the State Children Act in April 1965, then licensed under the Children's Services Act 4 August 1966.

A publication from 1968 stated that Tufnell Toddlers' Home accommodated 32 children aged 2 to 5 years (Social Services Queensland, 1968, p.96).

Records

Please note that the records of the Tufnell Toddlers' Home are combined with the Tufnell Children's Home records.

Tufnell Toddler's Home

Description: This is an image of the Tufnell Toddler's Home, Nundah, during its construction. It was published in The Telegraph on 20 March 1947. The caption reads "This imposing brick building nearing completion at Nundah is to be called the Toddler's Home. The home, to be conducted by sisters of the Sacred Heart, is next to the Church of England Tufnell Home, and will be ready in two or three months. Archbishop Haise laid the foundation stone last June. The home will be for orphan children from the age of two till they go to school."
