

Queensland Society for Crippled Children

1933 – 2001

Other Names: • QSCC

Details

The Queensland Society for Crippled Children (QSCC) was established in April 1933. In response to a polio epidemic, the QSCC provided institutional care for children affected by the disease. In 2001, the society became known as MontroseAccess.

More info

Chronology

- Queensland Society for Crippled Children (1933 – 2001)
 - MontroseAccess (2001 - 2015)
 - Montrose Therapy and Respite Services (2015 - current)

Related Entries

Ran

- Montrose Home for Crippled Children \(3 December 1933 - 2001\)

Resources

- Queensland Society for Crippled Children, Years of achievement: 1932-1972, 1972

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/queensland-society-for-crippled-children/>