

Peirson Memorial Trust Home, Bundaberg

1 November 1983 – c. 1990

Other Names: • Peirson Memorial Home

Details

The Peirson Memorial Trust Home, in Bundaberg, was a family group home run by the Peirson Memorial Trust. The Home opened on 1 November 1983. It was established to provide accommodation for young people, primarily residents of the Redcliffe and Heytesbury homes, to undertake apprenticeships in Bundaberg. Its funding ceased 1990.

The Peirson Memorial Trust has advised that they have records relating to children who were residents, however, the records are not well organised. Former residents wishing to access their records should contact the Peirson Memorial Trust.
