

Ray Powell Cottage

1969 – 1976

Details

Ray Powell Cottage, in Toowoomba, was a family group home co-located with Horton House. It was run by the Salvation Army. It opened in 1969 and became part of the renamed Horton Village in 1976.

As a result of the 1960s move towards providing care for children in smaller cottages, Ray Powell Cottage was added to the Horton House campus in 1969.

The cottage housed up to 16 children with house parents.

In 1976 the whole complex became known as Horton Village.
