

Family Home, Mount Gambier

1972 –

Details

The Family Home, Mount Gambier was established by the Department for Community Welfare in 1972. It provided emergency and short-term care for children while a family crisis was being assessed or while other placement options were being determined. The Family Home, Mount Gambier, accommodated less than 8 children. The date of closure for the Family Home, Mount Gambier, is not known.

The Family Home, Mount Gambier was established at 8 Acacia Street, Mount Gambier, by the Department for Community Welfare in 1972.

'Family homes' generally accommodated eight children or less in a family style setting. They provided emergency and short-term care for children while a family crisis was being assessed or while other placement options were being determined. The family home parents were not paid a salary by the Department but were provided with rent-free accommodation at the home and received a subsidy for each child in residence.

The date of closure of the Family Home, Mount Gambier, is not known.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- Department for Community Welfare, South Australian Government \(1972 - 1990\)

Family Home, Mount Gambier was run by the Department for Community Welfare and its successors.

Date: 1972 - ?

Related Glossary Terms

- Family Home \(1960s - current\)

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records

- Child Welfare Records of the Social Welfare Department and predecessors, South Australia \(1862 - 2000\)