

Far North Children's Health Scheme

1957 – 1975?

Details

Far North Children's Health Scheme, run by the SA Council of the Australian Inland Mission, was based at Warrawee at Grange from 1957. The Far North Children's Health Scheme brought inland children between the ages of 5 and 15 in need of treatment in the city to Warrawee at Grange. Warrawee closed in 1975 as children were being sent directly to the Adelaide Children's Hospital.

More info

Related Entries

Related Events

- Interstate movement of Northern Territory children \(1930s - 1970s\)

Related Organisations

- Warrawee, Grange \(1950 - 1975\)

The Far North Children's Health Scheme brought inland children between the ages of 5 and 15 in need of treatment to Warrawee at Grange

Date: 1957 - 1975

- Australian Inland Mission \(1912 - 1977\)

The Far North Children's Health Scheme was part of the SA Council of the Australian Inland Mission

Records

Records held by other organisations

- [Records of the Uniting Church in Australia Frontier Services \[Australian Inland Mission\] \(1897 - 2011\)](#)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/far-north-childrens-health-scheme/>