

Nidlandi Hostel

1974 – 1981

Other Names:

- South East Corner Residence
- South East Corner Group

Details

Nidlandi Hostel was established in 1972 in Adelaide and initially operated as a private alternative school, which was also known as the South East Corner Group. It became a hostel in 1974, providing accommodation for teenagers aged between 12 and 18. Nidlandi is an Aboriginal word meaning 'stop moving'. From 1977 Nidlandi was licensed by the state government and received financial assistance towards its operation. Nidlandi Hostel closed in 1981.
