

Gurney Street Legacy Hostels

1964 – c. 1967

Details

The Gurney Street Legacy Hostels were established by Legacy in Gurney Street, Dulwich in 1964. The two cottages were purchased by Legacy to provide temporary accommodation for Legacy wards after the closure of Waverley House. The Gurney Street Legacy Hostels only operated for a few years due to general changes in the field of residential child care and declining demand.

More info

Chronology

- Waverley House (1946 - 1964)
 - Gurney Street Legacy Hostels (1964 – c. 1967)

Related Entries

Run by

- Legacy Club of South Australia and Broken Hill \(1928 - current\)

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records

- Records of the Legacy Club of Adelaide Inc. \(1941? - 1979?\)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/gurney-street-legacy-hostels/>