

Save the Children Fund, Australia

1922 –

Details

Save the Children Fund is an international organisation dedicated to protecting the rights of children. The South Australian branch of Save the Children Fund was established in 1922. From 1951 the fund focused its work on improving the health and education of Aboriginal children. Save the Children Fund ran the Oodnadatta Hostel from 1970 into the 1980s.

More info

Related Entries

Ran

- Oodnadatta Hostel \(1971 - 1986\)

Resources

- Save the Children Fund N.S.W. Division, The World's Children: the magazine of Save the Children Fund, 1980 - 1993

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/save-the-children-fund-australia/>