

Tasmanian Aboriginal Child Care Association

1983 –

Other Names: • TACCA

Details

The Tasmanian Aboriginal Child Care Association was established in 1983 in Launceston. In 2014, it provides long term day child care, an Aboriginal parenting support service, and manages the funds for other projects that support learning for young Aboriginal people.

The Tasmanian Aboriginal Child Care Association was established by Molly Mallett who was born on Cape Barren Island in 1926 and died in 2005. She coordinated the Association for its first two years of operation.
