

Board of Guardians Queens Asylum

1862 – 1879

Details

The Board of Guardians Queens Asylum was established in 1862. It had the guardianship and legal control of the children placed in the Queen's Orphan Asylum. The Board was abolished in 1879, when the Asylum closed.

The Queen's Asylum Act of 1861 established the Board of Guardians. This coincided with the transfer of administration of the Asylum from the imperial to the colonial government.

More info

Related Entries

Ran

- Queen's Orphan Asylum \(1833 - 1879\)
Date: 1861 - 1879

Related Legislation

- Queen's Asylum Act 1861, Tasmania \(1861 - 1934\)

Resources

- Kippen, Rebecca, 'A most shocking tissue of barbarous cruelty': scandal and death in the Queen's Orphan Schools', Chainletter: News from the Founders & Survivors project at the Universities of Tasmania, Melbourne, Flinders, New South Wales, and the Australian National University, August 2010

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/board-of-guardians-queens-asylum/>