

Preventive Payment Scheme

1976 - 1980

Details

The Preventive Payment Scheme was designed to prevent children going into residential care by making payments to families undergoing a serious financial crisis. The Commonwealth government funded it. In 1979-80, the Tasmanian State government replaced it with a Family Assistance Scheme which operated similarly.

Click here to see the full Find & Connect glossary

More info

Chronology

- Preventive Payment Scheme (1976 1980)
 - Family Assistance Scheme Tasmania (1980 current)

You can view this page online by visiting https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/preventive-payment-scheme/