

Veranto Lifestyle Assistance

2011 – 2023

Other Names: • Li-Ve

Details

Veranto Lifestyle Assistance replaced Oakdale Services Tasmania in 2011. They run services for people living at home in the Hobart area. They also run Oakdale Lodge, a home for adults with disabilities. In 2015 Veranto Lifestyle Assistance merged with Liviende to become Liviende Verant. In 2016-17 the organisation was rebranded as Li-Ve. In 2023 Li-Ve merged with disability support provider genU, which continued to be known as genU.

More info

Chronology

- Retarded Children's Welfare Association (1952 - 1982)
 - Retarded Citizens' Welfare Association (1982 - 1992)
 - Oakdale Services Tasmania (1992 - 2011)
- Veranto Lifestyle Assistance (2011 – 2023)

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Royal Derwent Hospital \(1968 - 2000\)

Veranto Lifestyle Assistance manages some of the homes of former residents of the Royal Derwent Hospital.
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/veranto-lifestyle-assistance/>