

Division of Mental Hygiene

1945 – 1956

Details

---

The Division of Mental Hygiene was established in 1945 as part of a restructure of the Public Health Department. It had responsibility for the Mental Deficiency Board as well as Lachlan Park and Millbrook Rise Psychopathic Hospitals.

More info

---

Chronology

- Division of Mental Hygiene (1945 – 1956)
  - Division of Mental Health (1956 - 1963)
    - Division of Psychiatric Services (1963 - 1968)
      - The Mental Health Services Commission (1968 - 1989)
        - Mental Health Services (1989? - current)

Related Entries

Ran

- Millbrook Rise Psychopathic Hospital \(1933 - 1968\)

Run by

- Public Health Department, State of Tasmania \(1904 - 1956\)

Related Organisations

- Mental Deficiency Board \(1922 - 1964\)
- Lachlan Park Hospital \(1937 - 1968\)

The Division of Mental Hygiene, was the section of the Public Health Department that managed Lachlan Park.

Records

---

Records

- Correspondence Files, Public Health Department \(1940 - 1989\)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/division-of-mental-hygiene/>