

Pallottines (Society of the Catholic Apostolates)

1901 –

URL: <http://www.pallottine.org.au>

Details

---

The Pallottines (Society of the Catholic Apostolate) in Australia are a male Catholic religious order of Priests and Brothers. They were established in Rome by Vincent Pallotti, which gives them the name, 'Pallottine'. The Pallottines came to Australia in 1901 to work at Beagle Bay Mission and since then have been involved with many missions in Western Australia.

More info

---

Related Entries

Ran

- Beagle Bay Mission \(1895 - 1976\)
The Pallottines (Society of the Catholic Apostolates) were involved in running Beagle Bay Mission as part of the Catholic Diocese of Broome.
Date: 1901 - 1976
- La Grange Mission \(1955 - 1984\)
- Lombadina \(1909 - 1975\)
The Pallottines (Society of the Catholic Apostolates) ran Lombadina as part of the Catholic Diocese of Broome.
- Oceanview \(1970 - 1995?\)
Date: 1970 - 1972
- Albany Boys' Hostel \(c. 1970 - 1978\)
- Pallottine Mission Centre \(1955 - 1991\)
- Pallottine Mission, Tardun \(1948 - 2004\)
- St Joseph's Hostel \(1959 - 1986\)
Date: 1958 - 1986
- Wandering Mission \(1944 - 1979\)
- Wirrumanu \(1939 - 1975\)

Related Organisations

- Catholic Diocese of Broome \(1897? - current\)
The Pallottines (Society of the Catholic Apostolates) operated a Mission in the Catholic Diocese of Broome.
- Catholic Diocese of Perth \(1845 - 1913\)
- Catholic Archdiocese of Perth \(1913 - current\)
- Archives of the Pallottine Fathers and Brothers - Australian Region \(c. 1990 - current\)

Resources

- The Catholic Encyclopedia, New Advent, 2009
  - Ganter, Regina, German Missionaries in Australia - A web-directory of intercultural encounters, 2016.
Relevance: 'German Missionaries in Australia' holds detailed historical information about missions and farm schools run by the Pallottines in Western Australia during the twentieth century
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/pallottines-society-of-the-catholic-apostolates/>