

Great Mates – Armadale Youth Crisis Accommodation

2003 – 2007

Details

Great Mates – Armadale Youth Crisis Accommodation began in 2003 to provide crisis and transitional accommodation to local youth who were homeless or at imminent risk of homelessness. It is thought to have closed around 2007.

Great Mates – Armadale Youth Crisis Accommodation began as a funded program of the Commonwealth/State funded Supported Accommodation Assistance Programme (SAAP). It was contracted to the Department for Community Development to deliver crisis and transitional accommodation services to young people aged 15-20 years in the Armadale area after the previous service (Armadale Youth Accommodation) closed.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Armadale Youth Accommodation Service \(1989 - 2002\)
Great Mates Armadale Youth Crisis Accommodation provided crisis accommodation services to youth in the Armadale area after the Armadale Youth Accommodation Service closed.
- Fremantle Youth Crisis Accommodation Service \(2002 - current\)
Great Mates Armadale Youth Crisis Accommodation was a 'sister' service to the Fremantle Youth Crisis Accommodation Service.

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/great-mates-armadale-youth-crisis-accommodation/>