

Langford Youth Accommodation Service

1986? – 2001

Other Names: • Ravenhill Youth Hostel

Details

Langford Youth Accommodation Service began around 1986 in Thornlie, with a hostel called Ravenhill providing accommodation for young people aged 15-18 years. The service was run by a private committee of management. It closed in 2001.

The Langford Youth Accommodation Service began around 1986 and by 1991 was receiving funding from the Youth Supported Accommodation Program, which was a sub-program of the Commonwealth/State funded Supported Accommodation Assistance Programme (SAAP). The service was run by a private management committee, and had a hostel at 32 Ravenhill Road, Thornlie.

In 1995, the service was described as providing medium-term accommodation and support for up to four young people at a time, to help them transition from homelessness and crisis to more permanent accommodation and lifestyle stability.

The service had closed by 2001.
