Details

Mission Australia Youth Accommodation and Support Service (YASS) was established in 1991 to provide safe and supported accommodation to young people who were homeless or at imminent risk of homelessness in Western Australia. It remained open in 2013, with accommodation programs for 15-18 year olds.

Mission Australia's Youth Accommodation and Support Service (YASS) was established in 1991, originally funded through the Youth Supported Accommodation Program, which was a sub-program of the Commonwealth/State funded Supported Accommodation Assistance Program. At that time, it was described as providing crisis and supported transitional accommodation for young people aged 15-25 years. In 2013, it had some programs aimed specifically at 15-18 year olds.
