

Keaney House

1955 – 1965

Details

Keaney House was established in Alma Road, North Perth by the Society of St Vincent de Paul. It was a hostel for up to nine 'working youths', with a focus on aftercare for former child migrants from Christian Brothers institutions, mostly from Clontarf. This function ceased in 1965 and the building was later used as a hostel for migrant families.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- St Vincent de Paul Society \(1854 - current\)

Related Organisations

- Clontarf \(8 September 1901 - 1983\)

Some older boys from Clontarf were placed at Keaney House in North Perth after they started work.

Date: 1955 - 1965

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/keaney-house/>