

Mary Clementina Hostel for Girls

1931 – 1952

Details

The Mary Clementina Hostel for Girls who went to Bunbury High School was established by the Sisters of St Elizabeth of Hungary, a group of Anglican nuns, in Bunbury in 1931. The hostel was named after Mary Clementina Benthall, who donated £1500. The hostel closed in 1952.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- Sisters of St Elizabeth of Hungary \(1928 - 1957\)

Related Organisations

- Anglican Diocese of Bunbury \(1904 - current\)
The Mary Clementina Hostel was a service provided within the Anglican Diocese of Bunbury.
- C.W.A Girls' Hostel, Bunbury \(1952 - 1982?\)
Heath House was established as a high school hostel to replace the Mary Clementina Hostel.

Resources

- [Mission to Women \[Mary Clementina Hostel\]](#), Albany Advertiser, 18 March 1931
- Hostel for Albany High School, Albany Advertiser, 8 February 1943

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/mary-clementina-hostel-for-girls/>