

Mary Clementina Hostel for Girls

1931 - 1952

Details

The Mary Clementina Hostel for Girls who went to Bunbury High School was established by the Sisters of St Elizabeth of Hungary, a group of Anglican nuns, in Bunbury in 1931. The hostel was named after Mary Clementina Benthall, who donated £1500. The hostel closed in 1952.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

• Sisters of St Elizabeth of Hungary (1928 - 1957)

Related Organisations

- Anglican Diocese of Bunbury (1904 current)
 The Mary Clementina Hostel was a service provided within the Anglican Diocese of Bunbury.
- C.W.A Girls' Hostel, Bunbury (1952 1982?)
 Heath House was established as a high school hostel to replace the Mary Clementina Hostel.

Resources

- Mission to Women [Mary Clementina Hostel], Albany Advertiser, 18 March 1931
- Hostel for Albany High School, Albany Advertiser, 8 February 1943

You can view this page online by visiting https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/mary-clementina-hostel-for-girls/