

Methodist Hostel for Boys, Albany

1946 – 1972?

Other Names: • Norman House

Details

The Methodist Hostel for Boys was established in 1946 by the Home Missions Department of the Methodist Church as a hostel for boys going to high school in Albany. It was known as 'Norman House' after Mr John Norman who was a member of the Methodist Conference in recognition of what was described as his 'untiring, unflinching work for the youth of Albany'. In 1962, the Methodist Hostel for Boys moved to premises at the old Government Hospital in Albany where it possibly remained until 1972.

Gallery

Pictures to the Editor

Description: This is a digital copy of a photograph from the Western Mail, which is published on the National Library of Australia's website, Trove. It is one of two photographs taken at the opening ceremony of the Methodist Hostel for Boys in Albany (Norman House) that were published in this edition of the newspaper.

Methodist Hostel for Boys, Albany

Description: This digital copy of a photograph from the City of Albany's Municipal Heritage Inventory shows a building that was once the Government Hospital in Albany. In 1962, the Methodist Hostel for Boys moved to these premises.

More info

Related Entries

Run by

- Methodist Church of Western Australia \(1829 - 1977\)

The Home Missions Department of the Methodist Church was responsible for overseeing the operations of the Methodist Hostel for Boys at Albany.

Resources

- [Norman House \[Opening on Saturday\]](#), Albany Advertiser, 14 February 1946

Records

For more information and to access your records, follow the links below:

Records

- [Files - Departmental \[Education Department\] \(1 January 1885 - 31 December 2000\)](#)
-

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/methodist-hostel-for-boys-albany-2/>