

Mental Health Act Amendment Act 1965, Western Australia

1965 – 1996

URL: http://www.austlii.edu.au/au/legis/wa/num_act/mhaaa196537o1965275/mhaaa196537o1965275.html

Details

The Mental Health Act Amendment Act 1965 (037 of 1965) included the term 'intellectually defective' to describe a person who was 'suffering from arrested or incomplete development of mind' (s.3b). This was the first time intellectual disability had been distinguished from mental illness in the statute law of Western Australia.

More info

Related Entries

Amends

- Mental Health Act 1962, Western Australia \(1962 - 1996\)

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/mental-health-act-amendment-act-1965-2/>