

Irrabeena

1961 – 1992?

Other Names: • Irrabeena Advisory and Investigation Centre

Details

Irrabeena began in 1961 as the Slow Learning Children's Group's diagnostic and assessment centre in Perth. In 1964, Irrabeena became part of the Mental Health Services. Children were assessed at Irrabeena before placement. It is not yet known when Irrabeena closed, but no mention of it has been found since the early 1990s.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Mental Health Services, State Government of Western Australia \(1954 - 1984\)
Irrabeena began in 1961 as the Slow Learning Children's Group's diagnostic and assessment centre in Perth and became part of the State Government's Mental Health Services in 1964.
- Slow Learning Children's Group \(June 1951 - 1 March 1989\)
Irrabeena began in 1961 as the Slow Learning Children's Group's diagnostic and assessment centre in Perth and became part of the State Government's Mental Health Services in 1964.
- Graceville Centre \(1903 - current\)
Graceville Centre residents with intellectual disabilities attended Irrabeena programs in the 1970s and 1980s.
Date: 1970s - 1980s

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/irrabeena/>