

Ministering Children's League Convalescent Home

1897 – 1949

Details

The Ministering Children's League Convalescent Home was established at Cottesloe Beach in 1897 for adults. A few children were admitted as paying inpatients during the early years of the Home, but thereafter were only admitted to the Convalescent Home during 1943, when 50 children from rural WA came to stay as part of a Country Women's Association holiday program.

Ministering Children's League Convalescent Home, Cottesloe

Description: The two storey Meath Wing was added to the Ministering Children's League Convalescent Home in 1909. The home stood on the corner of Warton Street and Swanbourne Terrace (now Marine Parade) and provided care for those recovering from a serious illness. It is now the site of the Wearne Hostel.
