

Mental Treatment Act 1917, Western Australia

1917 – 1927

URL: https://www.legislation.wa.gov.au/legislation/statutes.nsf/law_a6803.html

Details

The Mental Treatment Act 1917 (7 Geo. V No. 29) allowed people returning from World War I service with 'mental disorders' to be admitted to mental health institutions without the stigma of being certified as insane. It would have been possible for returning service personnel under 21 years of age to be admitted under this Act.

More info

Chronology

- Mental Treatment Act 1917, Western Australia (1917 – 1927)
 - Mental Treatment Act 1927, Western Australia (1927 - current)

Related Entries

Related Legislation

- Lunacy Act 1903, Western Australia \(1903 - 1962\)

The Lunacy Act 1903 was the Principal Act for the Mental Treatment Act 1917.

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/mental-treatment-act-1917-2/>