

Adventist Support

2000 -

URL: https://www.adsafe.org.au/who-we-are

Details

Adventist Support is an organisation for people who wish to register a complaint or discuss their experiences in institutions run by the Western Australian Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church. It was founded in February 2000. In 2006 its name changed to Safe Place Services, and in 2017 the name was again changed to AdSafe, however the service provided remained the same.

More info

Related Entries

Related Organisations

- Karalundi Mission (1954 1974)
 - Safe Place Services is an organisation for people who wish to register a complaint or discuss their experiences in institutions run by the Western Australian Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
- Wiluna Mission (1955 1975)
 - Safe Place Services is an organisation for people who wish to register a complaint or discuss their experiences in institutions run by the Western Australian Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.
- Western Australian Conference of the Seventh-day Adventist Church (1890 current)

You can view this page online by visiting https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/safe-place-services/