

St Peter's Boys' School, Fremantle

1903 - 1903

Other Names: • St Peter's College

Details

St Peter's Boys' School, Fremantle, was used as a temporary children's Home in 1903 by the Sisters of the Church, an Anglican religious order. It accommodated around 13 boys aged 6-10 years and babies aged under two years. These children had been transferred from Perth College. From May to July 1903, the children were transferred to the Waif's Home, Parkerville and St Peter's Boys' Home, Fremantle closed.

More info

Chronology

- St Peter's Boys' School, Fremantle (1903 1903)
 - Waif's Home, Parkerville (1903 1909)
 - Parkerville Children's Home (1909 2005)
 - Parkerville Children and Youth Care (Inc) (2005 current)

Related Entries

Run by

Sisters of the Church (1901 - 1908)

Related Organisations

Perth College (1902 - current)

Perth College was a temporary Home for boys and infants who were later transferred to St Peter's Boys' School, Fremantle.

You can view this page online by visiting https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/st-peters-boys-school-fremantle/