

Salvation Army Maternity Home, Charters Towers

1898 – 1903

Details

The Salvation Army Maternity Home opened at Charters Towers in September 1898. It was located in a large house owned by Mr Tubbs on Gordon Street, at Richmond Hill. It had capacity for 7 women and 9 babies. Women staying at the home were expected to do sewing work to help supplement the home's income. In 1900 the Home moved to Oxford Street, Charters Towers. It closed in 1903.
