

Terrigal Holiday Home

1942 –

Other Names:

- Terrigal Holiday House
- Spurway Holiday House

Details

---

Terrigal Holiday Home, also known as Spurway Holiday House, was a holiday home for boys from the Church of England Boys Home, Carlingford. The home at Terrigal (also sometimes referred to as Wamberal) was donated to the Boys Home in 1942. In 2022 the Home was still owned by the Church of England, however it is not clear if it was still used as a children's holiday home.

More info

---

Related Entries

Run by

- Church of England Homes \(c. 1884 - 1984\)

Related Organisations

- Church of England Boys' Home \(1918 - 1976\)

---

You can view this page online by visiting <https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/entity/terrigan-holiday-home/>