Summary and Access Information

This is a list of items in the Tasmanian Archives Series 'Correspondence Files' (Series Number AD203) that may be of relevance to Care Leavers. These include records relating to children's homes (both privately and government run), foster care, child migration, Aboriginal youth, providers of Out of Home Care, and other child welfare issues. The items have been grouped here by the Home or theme (e.g. Foster Care or Juvenile Justice) that they most closely relate to. These items have been identified by title only. There may be other items of relevance in the Correspondence Files series (AD203) that are also of relevance to Care Leavers that have not been listed here. A full list of items in the Correspondence Files series (AD203) has been published by Tasmanian Archives and is accessible via the following URL: <https://stors.tas.gov.au/AI/AD203>.

Tasmanian Archives also holds other records series and items of relevance to Care Leavers. For further information about the holdings of Tasmanian Archives please see the Tasmanian Archives guides on Adoptions, fostering and out-of-home care (<https://www.libraries.tas.gov.au/family-history/Pages/adopt.aspx>), Life as a child in care (<https://www.libraries.tas.gov.au/family-history/Pages/Child-in-care.aspx>), Records relating to child migrants (<https://www.libraries.tas.gov.au/archive-heritage/guides-records/Pages/child-migrant.aspx>), and the Find & Connect list of records held by the Tasmanian Archives (<https://www.findandconnect.gov.au/ref/tas/biogs/TE00325b.htm>).

The items in this series are classified as category B records, and as such access is restricted for 75 years in order to prevent the disclosure of personal and third party information.
