Summary

This is a list of items in the National Archives of Australia (NAA) Series 'A436 Correspondence files, Class 5 (British Migrants)' (containing files of the immigration department) that may be of relevance to Care Leavers and Former Child Migrants. These include records relating to children's homes and child migration schemes. The items have been grouped here by the Home that they most closely relate to. These items have been identified by title only. There may be other items of relevance in A436 Correspondence files, Class 5 (British Migrants) that are also of relevance to Care Leavers and Former Child Migrants that have not been listed here. A full list of items in A436 Correspondence files, Class 5 (British Migrants) has been published by NAA and is accessible via the following URL: <https://recordsearch.naa.gov.au/scripts/AutoSearch.asp?Number=A436>.

Access Information

The majority of items in this series are open, and many have been digitised and are available online.

Open access records can be ordered from NAA by any member of the public either for viewing in-person (a free service) or as an online copy (requires payment). Individuals requesting records will need to first create a user login for record search, and then request a copy via the online catalogue entry for that item.

Some items in this Series are open with exception, meaning that portions of the files are closed to protect personal privacy. The open portions of these files can be ordered in the same way as fully open records. To access information in the closed portions of these files individuals will need to or contact the NAA directly providing details of the records in question. The records will be reviewed, and appropriate access determined.

For more information on accessing records at the National Archives of Australia please see <https://www.naa.gov.au/help-your-research/getting-started>
